

Communication

William Caxton and Tim Berners-Lee

William Caxton

William Caxton was born in Kent in 1422.

He later moved to Bruges in Belgium and became a Rich man.

William travelled to Cologne and had to handwrite all books.

William then set up a printing press in Bruges before returning to London and setting another in 1476.

Tim Berners-Lee

Tim Berners-Lee was born in the UK in 1955.

Tim was a scientist who wanted to find a way to share others scientist's hard work.

In 1991 Tim released the first website explaining what the world wide web would do.

Forms of communication over time:

- Cave paintings
- Cuneiform
- Hieroglyphics
- Cipher
- Rosetta Stone
- Pigeon carrier
- Morse code
- Telephone
- Computer
- Mobile phone
- Internet
- Smart phone
- Laptop
- Tablet

Key vocabulary:

Communication- Way of sending or receiving information.

Hieroglyphics- Method of communication used by the Ancient Egyptians.

Printing Press- A machine used for printing pictures or text.

Invented- To create or design something that has been made before.

Morse code- An alphabet or code in which letters are represented by combinations of long and short light or sound signals

Telegrams- A message sent by telegraph and then delivered in written or printed form

History Timeline

1422-1492

William Claxton

1805-1881

Mary Seacole

1820-1910

Florence Nightingale

1837-1901

Victorian era

1955-Present

Tim Berners-Lee