

Key Vocabulary

Gurdwara	A Gurdwara is the place that Sikhs go to pray and worship God. A Gurdwara is a very important place to Sikhs.
Sikhs	Sikhs are people who worship God and believe in Sikhism.
Guru Granth Sahib	The Guru Granth Sahib is the Holy book which teaches Sikhs how to live their life.
Langar	A Langar is a food kitchen that cooks free food for anybody that visits the Gurdwara. The food is all vegetarian.
5Ks	The 5Ks are Khanga, Kachera, Kara, Kesh and Kirpan. They are different objects that Sikhs wear.
God	Sikhs pray to God. God is very important to Sikhs.

What happens in a Gurdwara?

During this topic, the children will explore the different objects which can be found inside a Gurdwara. They will also learn how the objects are used and why they are special to Sikhs.

Questions-

- Why are Gurdwara so important?
- Who attends a Gurdwara and why?
- Are Gurdwara old buildings?

All Gurdwaras are different, some are bigger than others.

This Gurdwara is in London.

gurdwara

Nishan Sahib

guru

langar

rumala

chauri

Khanga

Kachera

Kara

What are the 5 Ks?

Kesh

Kirpan

What might you see inside a Gurdwara?